Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

"Have You Considered Job?"

– extracted from original thoughts by Roger Bruner

Jehovah said unto Satan, "Hast thou considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one that feareth God, and turneth away from evil"

Job 1.8

There are three things mentioned about Job as a father which deserve consideration:

1. His priority. Jehovah called Job "my servant" (1.8). What a statement! As great as Job's conditions were (1.3), it did not measure up to his faith. Children can recognise their father's priority in life.
2. His honesty. "Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings... for it may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually" (1.5). No father should accept that his child "does no wrong." Job acknowledged the reality that his children were human and therefore subject to the lusts of the flesh (Ephesians 2.3). Paul declared, "All have sinned" (Romans 3.23). A father who is a servant of Jehovah must acknowledge that his own children are not immune from fleshly lusts (2 Peter 2.18) and follow Job's example.

His example. He sent for and sanctified them with burnt offerings...continually. The reason? It may be that they have sinned and renounced God in their hearts. Not every sin is with a "high hand." Some are committed unwittingly, in presumption, and in secret (cf. Numbers 15.24-30). Knowing this, Job exercised his faith and appealed to Jehovah for mercy on their behalf. "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his lovingkindness is everlasting" (Psalm 118.1).

Let us as Fathers always bring our children before the Lord for their sanctification.
